

KUKE: Polish exports keep growing

2010-07-29

Polish exports in June 2010 amounted to EUR 10.40 billion, 5.4% up on May 2010 and 25.6% up on June, the Export Credit Insurance Company (KUKE) has informed in a communique.

KUKE expects that from June to August 2010, Polish exports counted in euro will be higher by 18.8% than a year ago and the total predicted rise in exports for 2010 will stand at 16.2% in euro terms.

“In June, KUKE’s clients’ interest in export activities was higher than in May and considerably stronger compared to last year” the spokesperson for the company Agnieszka Żółtowska tells wnp.pl.
